Classes of Membership - Select one of the below classes of memberships for your application.

Please sign under the one membership class for which you wish to apply:

1) Ordinary Member:

"Ordinary member" means a nominated Landholder that has applied for ordinary membership under rule 5(2). An ordinary member has only one vote when voting rights are required to be exercised. Ordinary membership is available to one nominated Landholder, or nominee of a landholder, per VEN in the Blackwood Biosecurity Inc (BBI) Area of Management. Membership entitles one vote per VEN and maximum of one vote per member.

I declare that I am a representative for the property listed above and that no other landholder from this property is registered as the Ordinary member. In submission of this application, I confirm that I have read both the BBI Rules of Association and Code of Conduct and if my application for "Ordinary Membership" is successful, I agree to abide by both.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Both the BBI Rules of Association and Code of Conduct are available on our website at the following links: BBI Rules of Association and Code of Conduct.

A person who wishes to become a member of the Blackwood Biosecurity Inc. must be proposed by one member and seconded by another member. This will occur as part of the member approval process held at the next BBI management committee meeting.

If your application is accepted, your name and address, as provided above, must be recorded in a register of members and be made available to other members upon request under section 53 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015.

An applicant whose application for membership of the Association is rejected under sub-rule (4) must, if they wish to appeal against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention to do so with additional supporting documentation as to why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the date of the rejection.

Note: The section is to be signed by members of the BBI Management Committee.
